

CRS at Blossoms of Light December 16 & 18, 2018

Kristi Horvath
970.759.9935

Sunday, December 16 – Rehearsal

Time 3-5pm

Location Broomfield United Methodist Church

What to Bring Your favorite cookies and copies of the recipe to share! It's a cookie exchange!
Black music folder with caroling music
Water bottle

Sunday, December 16 and Tuesday, December 18 – Performances

Time	5:30pm	Arrive & Park at DBG (see details below)
	5:45pm	Gather and check in at Sensory Garden (see details below)
	6-8pm	Performance

Performer Parking & Arrival

- Park in the Gardens' parking garage, Congress Park, Cheesman Park. Please note that many streets in the immediate area will have parking restrictions enforced. Carpooling is highly recommended!
- Enter through the small gate just north of the Visitor Center. A sign stating "Private Event & Caroler Entry" will be pointing at the Gate.
- Gather in the Caroler Meeting Spot, which is located in the Sensory Garden. An Events team member will meet you at 5:45pm and show you to the singing location.

Performance Details

- Please sing only in the designated location near The Hive Bistro, which has been selected to allow people to stand and watch your performance without blocking pathways.
- Take breaks as needed, but please try to perform for the majority of the performance window, 6-8pm.

Inviting Friends & Family

- Friends & family must have a ticket if they wish to watch you perform. Use the promo code SING2018, good for $2 off general admission prices online or in person. NOTE: tickets are $5 higher at the door, and tickets are limited; advance purchases are highly recommended.
- If you wish to arrive early or stay after your performance time to walk the path and enjoy the lights with family and friends, feel free to do so! Blossoms of Light is open 5-9pm.

What to Bring

- Performer ticket (will be distributed at rehearsal)
- Black folder with caroling music (music will be distributed at rehearsal)
- Cliplight to illuminate your music
- Water bottle if desired
- Pitch pipe, if desired

Attire

- Warm attire – we'll be singing outside!